Crab Apple, the sensation of the week's racing, was looked upon as a winner by the large crowd of local race followers. In fact he sold favorite in ne pools, but after the race few could a found who figured the fast Crabtree pres in Robert I's class. In the first hand and the pair raced around the track like a pole team. On the back stretch the second time around, Crab one or the other to give up.

How Bleed Told in Race.

As is often said, blood will tell, and it was here that the Hambletonian stock asserted itself, as Robert I never faltered. He drew away from the fast tiring Crab Apple, and came down the stretch a winner by two lengths.

In the second heat Crab Apple laid back for the first half and then threw all his speed at the perfect gaited stallion. Down the back stretch they raced sgain, leaving the field far in the rear. Robert I accepted the challenge and gave back more than he received. is they neared the last turn. men batted above the 300 mark, which is a remarkable showing for a four-team league. In fleiding, Shaffer did the best work of all players on first base, and O'Connell beat Deimas out at second, which is a surprise. Weed again was the best third baseman, while Runkle easily leads the shortstops. Bruyette coming last. Old Buck Weaver did the best work in the outfield of the players who were in more than half the games, Gimlin beating Muller out by one point for the Salt Lake team. Stanley was the most consistent fielding catcher in the league.

Delmas of Salt Lake and Babbitt of Boise led the league in the number of games played, both taking part in 130 games, Rockenfield secored 113 runs, leading the league. Shaffer was high man in base hits, making 188. Shaffer, Clark and Houtz, with thirty-three, tied in two-base hits. Houtz led in three-base hits with eighteen, and Frary took the honor of knocking the most home runs from Joe Marshall. Frary hitting out thirteen to ten for Marshall and ten for Murdock. Runkle sacrificed thirty-seven times and Houtz stole forty-nine bases. Gimlin leading Salt Lake with thirty-five.

Sunny Jim Shaffer out out 1,239 men. Runkle assisted to put out 445. Eruyette led the league with errors, making eighty-nine. Willie Hogg struck out 259 and also made more wild pitches, twenty-four in all, and gave 142 men bases on balls. Starkells of Boise hit thirty-six men. Hogg was faced by 1,502 players during the season. Four hundred and fifty singles were made off McFarlaine, seventy-eight two-baggers off Dammann. twenty-six three-baggers off Dammann and Tozer.
